Priority Standards: (content specific)	ELAGSE11-12RL5: ANALYZE how an author's choices concerning how to structure specific parts of a text, contribute to its overall structure and meaning as well as its aesthetic impact. ELAGSE11-12W3: WRITE narratives to develop real or imagined experiences or events using effective technique, well-chosen details, and well-structured event sequences. a. ENGAGE and orient the reader by setting out a problem, situation, or observation and its significance, establishing one or multiple point(s) of view, and introducing a narrator and/or characters; CREATE a smooth progression of experiences or events. b. USE narrative techniques, such as dialogue, pacing, description, reflection, and multiple plot lines, to develop experiences, events, and/or characters. c. USE a variety of techniques to sequence events so that they build on one another to CREATE a coherent whole and build toward a particular tone and outcome (e.g., a sense of mystery, suspense, growth, or resolution). d. USE precise words and phrases, telling details, and sensory language to convey a vivid picture of the experiences, events, setting, and/or characters. e. PROVIDE a conclusion that follows from and reflects on what is experienced, observed, or resolved over the course of the narrative. ELAGSE11-12W9: DRAW evidence from literary or informational texts to SUPPORT analysis, reflection, and research. a. APPLY grades 11–12 Reading standards to literature (e.g., "Demonstrate knowledge of eighteenth-, nineteenth- and early-twentieth-century foundational works of American literature, including how two or more texts from the same period treat similar themes or topics"). b. APPLY grades 11–12 Reading standards to literary nonfiction (e.g., "Delineate and evaluate the reasoning in seminal U.S. texts, including the application of constitutional principles and use of legal reasoning [e.g., in U.S. Supreme Court Case majority opinions and dissents) and the premises, purposes, and arguments in works of public advocacy.
Supporting Standards: (content specific)	ELAGSE11-12RL1: Cite strong and thorough textual evidence to support analysis of what the text says explicitly as well as inferences drawn from the text, including determining where the text leaves matters uncertain. ELAGSE11-12RI6: Determine an author's point of view or purpose in a text in which the rhetoric is particularly effective, analyzing how style and content contribute to the power, persuasiveness, or beauty of the text. ELAGSE11-12RI7: Integrate and evaluate multiple sources of information presented indifferent media or formats (e.g., visually, quantitatively) as well as in words in order to address a question or solve a problem. ELAGSE11-12RL5: Analyze how an author's choices concerning how to structure specific parts of a text (e.g., the choice of where to begin or end a story, the choice to provide a comedic or tragic resolution) contribute to its overall structure and meaning as well as its aesthetic impact. ELAGSE11-12SL3: Evaluate a speaker's point of view, reasoning, and use of evidence and rhetoric, assessing the stance, premises, links among ideas, word choice, points of emphasis, and tone used. ELAGSE11-12SL6: Adapt speech to a variety of contexts and tasks, demonstrating a command of formal English when indicated or appropriate. ELAGSE11-12L4: Determine or clarify the meaning of unknown and multiple-meaning words and phrases based on grades 11-12 reading and content, choosing flexibly from a range of strategies. a. Use context (e.g., the overall meaning of a sentence, paragraph, or text; a word's position or function in a sentence) as a clue to the meaning of a word or phrase. b. Identify and correctly use patterns of word changes that indicate different meanings or parts of speech (e.g., conceive, conception, conceivable). c. Consult general and specialized reference materials (e.g., dictionaries, glossaries, thesauruses), both print and digital, to find the pronunciation of a word or determine or clarify its precise meaning, its part of speech, or its etymology, or its standard usage. d. Verify the preliminary determination of the meaning of a word or phrase (e.g., by checking the inferred meaning in context or in a dictionary).

Non-Content Standards: (WIDA, interdisciplinary standards, literacy, etc.)
Learning Targets: (what learners will be able to do at the end of the learning activity)	Understand the Analyze historical, literary, and linguistic context of Anglo-Saxon literature. • Write • Create • Provide • Draw • Support
Essential Question(s): (address philosophical foundations; contain multiple answers; provoke inquiry)	1. How do the themes from the literature of the Anglo-Saxon period reflect the society? 2. How is the epic hero a reflection of his society? 3. What role does religion play in the lives of the people of the Anglo-Saxon and Medieval periods?
Big Idea(s): (main ideas, foundational understandings, conclusions, or generalizations)	1. Anglo-Saxon literature has several themes: Good vs. Evil, Fate vs. Faith and Christianity vs. Paganism (Animism) to name a few. These themes are reflected in the hero culture of the society and in the conflicts which arose for the Roman church's attempts at converting the Celts and other tribes to Christianity. 2. One of the most important traits of an Anglo-Saxon hero is Loyalty—to Clan, King, and Father. The Anglo-Saxon epic hero--most especially, Beowulf--demonstrates this characteristic repeatedly in the epic, which makes him a reflection of the values of his society. Second to loyalty is Strength and Courage. It is clear that these qualities too, are displayed by our exemplar hero, Beowulf, on several occasions throughout the epic. 3. The Anglo-Saxon period was a time of religious change. With the many invasions of Britain by foreign tribes, the period was rife with different beliefs and conversions. Most importantly--or most notably, was the invasion of Britain by the Romans. The Romans introduced British kings to the idea of Christianity with its "one God" concept. And once converted, it was the job of the king to declare his people to be Christians. The monks then set forth to translate the literature of the Anglo-Saxons and whatever portions of the works they found particularly offensive to their beliefs, they changed. Hence, there is a tremendous amount of Christian elements which exist in the literature of the Anglo-Saxons which we are privy to. These Christian elements exist, literally, side by side on the pages with the pagan (animist) beliefs of the Anglo-Saxon which the monks had not bowdlerized.
