

- Someone gets what he/she deserves
- Someone is cruel for no reason
- A supernatural event occurs
- Someone believes in Jesus
- A set/scene is cluttered and over-decorated
- Someone engages in hard work
- A rich person does something good
- Someone is honest to the point of stupidity
- Someone is optimistic
- A child receives a beating
- The author tugs at your heart-strings
- A character receives "assistance from beyond"

- Hard work pays off
- Somebody gets murdered
- The Other is a force of evil
- A good poor person becomes rich
- An injustice occurs
- Children are smarter than adults
- An unlikely plot event occurs
- Good triumphs over evil
- The audience learns a moral lesson
- A person is judged by his/her class
- A child shows courage
- Someone's name reveals their character
- A new or distant character solves everything

- We learn a secret from Mr. Rochester's past
- Mr. Rochester dominates a situation
- Mr. Rochester shows that he's very intelligent
- Mr. Rochester is/was treated as an outcast
- We perceive Mr. Rochester as a player
- Mr. Rochester does the right thing
- 3 characters find Mr. Rochester interesting/mysterious
- Mr. Rochester doesn't care about someone's rank or title
- Mr. Rochester proves that he doesn't care about social expectations

- Mr. Rochester behaves in a moody, depressed way
- Mr. Rochester is critical of himself
- Mr. Rochester does/did something self-destructive
- Something specific about Mr. Rochester seems dark and dangerous
- Mr. Rochester acts like an arrogant jerk
- Mr. Rochester schemes to get what he wants